The Real Review, Nick Butler August 2019
“Deep, and densely-cored colour with bright purple edges. It’s a compelling bouquet: blackberry jam, graphite, licorice - oak a frame. The dark-berried theme drives through the palate, balanced and assured, seriously classy and deserving of attention.”

94 Points
Halliday Wine Companion 2020
“A lustrous magenta, this mid-weighted, highly aromatic syrah has the push and pull across the senses that marks all fine wine. Classy. Svelte. Black fruit allusions effortlessly meld with the telltale cool climate signposts of florals, iodine and lacy, peppery acidity.”

The Wine Front, Campbell Mattinson, September 2019
“It’s twiggy, spicy and floral but it offers a good push of plum-driven fruit too. Redcurrant, clove, iodine and dark chocolate flavours are delivered in warm but complex style. There’s a tightness to this wine, almost a stringiness, and perhaps even a slight tinniness to the aftertaste. It does the ‘syrah’ style convincing and should evolve well in the cellar too.”
