"Nearly opaque violet colour. Roasted aromas and flavours of creamy mocha and dark roasted pecans with a satiny, tangy, fruity medium-to-full body and a tingling, interesting, medium-length blueberry chutney, spiced apples and raisins, and nut brittle finish with chewy, crunchy tannings and moderate oak. A robust, toasty shiraz with a sinewy core of ripe fruit."

"The Gaffer, well it puts me in mind of Lord of the Rings. Dark chocolate, vanilla, plum and spice, thyme, with a bit of BBQ thrown in. Medium to full bodied, dark chocolate and smoked meats, blackberry and juicy acidity, some grainy tannin, and a savoury/apricotty aftertaste. Solid throaty McLaren Shiraz here, that will do the job for most very nicely."
