“Deep and intense nose of black and purple fruit, smoke and vegetal notes. The palate opens up to be full, complex and layered with savoury spice and concentrated black fruit.”

96 Points

Halliday Wine Companion, James Halliday, March 2022

“Hand-picked fruit, matured 20 months in French (30% new) and American (5% new) oak. A massive wine (and bottle), opaque in colour, and equally densely packed into the mouth, with blackberry, dark chocolate and licorice; oak and ripe tannins filling any chance omission with yet more flavour. Strictly for those who love full-bodied wines.”

Silver / 94 Points

The Real Review, Huon Hooke, September 2021

“Deep, bold, dark red/purple colour, with a spicy, smoky, char-oak and dark chocolate bouquet, with subtle inflexions of blackberry and dark-plum. The wine is full-bodied and rich, deep and showing good concentration, the tannins very evident on the back-palate and finish, with some ferrous-ironstone characters and lingering earthy savouriness. A very smart shiraz.”
